Primary Logo

When to Use Primary Logo

The primary logo is the main representation of the brand and should be used as the default logo across brand communications and applications where sufficient space is available.

It should always be presented clearly and consistently to maintain strong brand recognition

Alternate Logo

When to Use Alternate Logo

Use the simplified logo or icon when the primary logo becomes difficult to read at smaller sizes.

Also, in cases where the available placement doesn't suit the proportions of the primary logo.

Typography

PRIMARY Typography

FANLSTE is the primary brand typeface for D'Grandeur Event Centre. Its elegant serif letterforms and distinctive detailing reflect the brand's character: sophisticated, welcoming and expressive of a special occasion.

The typeface brings a sense of ceremony to the identity, combining classical influence with a contemporary appearance. Its refined shapes complement the DG monogram and support the venue's positioning as a considered setting for celebrations and meaningful gatherings.

FANLSTE is used for prominent headlines, invitation titles, section headings and key brand statements. It should be given generous space and displayed at sizes that preserve the clarity of its finer details.

A clean sans-serif typeface supports longer paragraphs, event information, contact details and practical communications.

This pairing allows D'Grandeur's distinctive character to remain prominent while keeping information clear and easy to read.

SECONDARY Typography

Neue Haas Grotesk is the secondary brand typeface for D'Grandeur Event Centre. Its clean, understated letterforms complement the expressive serif character of FANLSTE, bringing clarity and balance to the brand's communications. The typeface supports D'Grandeur's refined visual identity while making everyday information approachable and easy to navigate.

Its restrained appearance allows prominent headlines and brand statements to retain their emphasis without competing with supporting content. Neue Haas Grotesk is used for body copy, subheadings, event details, brochures, menus, contact information, booking documents, directional signage and digital interfaces.

These applications require clear communication and a consistent reading experience across print and screen. Regular weights are preferred for paragraphs and descriptive information. Medium and bold weights establish hierarchy in subheadings, labels and important details.

Maintain comfortable line spacing, strong contrast and consistent alignment, particularly when presenting schedules, venue information and booking instructions.

EVENT CENTRE

A large, dark grey stone sign for the D'Grandeur Event Centre. The sign features a stylized 'DG' monogram at the top, followed by 'D'GRANDEUR' in a large serif font, and 'EVENT CENTRE' in a smaller sans-serif font. The sign is set in a landscaped area with green bushes, white flowers, and a paved driveway. In the background, a modern building with large glass windows and palm trees is visible.
